

[Elizabeth Levitin]

[Gregg Montgomery?]

Jan. 23, 1936.

Mrs. Elizabeth Levitin

201 N. Mills St.

Madison, Wis.

F. 184 Russian Personal History

Came to America from "The Crimea" in Russia in [1915?] . The Crimea was called "Little Paradise" and was the summer home of the Czar. [Mrs. Levitin came from a highly educated and cultured class and is an authority on Russian classical literature. She could not recall any myths, Folk?] [??], but did give me the following poem which she [?] (a good example of Russian classical poetry.) She thinks some of its beauty has been lost in the translation.

I. RUSSIAN

Gregg Montgomery

January 23, 1936 PERSONAL HISTORY

Mrs. Levitin came to America from "The Crimea" in Russia in 1915. The Crimea was called "Little Paradise" and was the summer home of the Czar.